

I am keen to find out more about the work of an Educational Psychologist as I think this is the career for me.

I am currently completing my Doctorate in Educational Psychology and want to find out more about the career opportunities at different local authorities.

Essex Educational Psychology Service

Improving lives: using psychology to create positive change

Essex County Council

A week in the life of an Educational Psychologist in Essex!

Thursday 1 November 2018

6.00pm - 8.00pm

Chelmsford County Hall, Chelmsford, Essex, CM1 1QH

This event is for people who...

- are currently completing their Doctorate in Child and Educational Psychology and are interested in finding out more about the way the Educational Psychology Service operates in Essex County Council
- are considering a career as an Educational Psychologist and would like to meet qualified Educational Psychologists, Assistant Educational Psychologists and Trainee Educational Psychologists
- are considering applying for the Doctorate in Educational Psychology *

If you wish to attend then please email katie.kendall@essex.gov.uk

* For direct information and guidance applying for the doctorate in Educational Psychology visit the Association of Educational Psychologists, <http://www.aep.org.uk/training/> and the British Psychological Society <http://www.bps.org.uk/>